PRICE ONE CENT.

YORK, THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1892.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ESTATE WHOLE REAL INDEX TELLS STORY.

Wins the Mile Handicap on he Hillrop Track To-Day.

WOODCUTTER RUNS SECOND.

the Kentucky Club Seized - First Race Questioned.

IMPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) GUTTENBURG HAGE TRACK, March 24. - The fine weather brought out a large crowd to than any one would have thought considering the weather yesterday. It was dry in spois and the warm sun worked wonder With it during the morning.

The weather could not have been mor which is backed by T. H. Shannon. An inoutry revealed that Judge Burke was not at all pleased with the running of Teutonic, owned by Sennett & Warne, which ran 1 the first race. Sennett and Warne are intimate friends of Shannon, which accounts for the seizure of the sheets.

The race is to be investigated after the ist race. Castle, the boy who rode Teutonic, was sus-ended a short time ago for pulling the Silver bread 50%. the handicap was the best betting race of the day. Woodcutter opened favorite, but the money poured on Miss Belle and Rancocas in such quantities that Woodcutter went up to 2 to 1. Woodcutter was then backed down again, closing very near-favorite. Miss Belle won very easily from Woodcut-ter.

again, closing very near favorite.

Miss Belle won very easily from Woodcutfer.

Rancosas was besten before half a mile had

Purse #400; for maidens; selling; four and half furlongs.

SECOND RACE. Purse $400; selling ; five furlongs.

king Hazem, St. Pancras and Glitter II. ade the running in a close bunch to the head of the stretch, there King Hazem cut loose om the others, and drawing away won easily y twolengths, tree

THIRD RACK.

Purse $500; handicap; one mile.

Furse $500; handicap; one mile.

Searies.

Misa Belle.

Misa Belle.

Misa Belle.

Misa Belle.

118. Bunn.

12. 2. 1.

Modenties.

119. Beron.

12. 2. 1.

Modenties.

119. Beron.

12. 2. 1.

Modenties.

12. Aneceker.

13. 2. 2.

Bestling. Misa Belle.

14. 1. 2. 2.

Bestling. Misa Belle.

15. 1. 2. 2.

Bestling. Misa Belle.

16. 2. 3. 2. 2.

Modentier went out and made the running, closely attended by Misa Belle.

Misa Belle.

Misa Belle.

Modentier went out and made the running.

Cas dropped out of it in the first half. Misa Belle.

Callared Woodentier at the bead of the stratch, and, after a short struggle, the mare takes away and won easily by a length.

Woodcutter was eight lengths in front of Rancocas. Time-1.404s. Mutuels paid: Straight, $5.25; place, $2.70. Woodcutter paid $2.60. FOURTH MACE. l'urse $400 ; handleap ; five furlongs

FIFTH BACK.

Starters, Weight Jockeys, See, Rif. Fin. J. B. 132, Martin 4 17 14 Eleve 132, Martin 4 17 14 Eleve 138 Caigis 5 5 25 Conundrum 129 Woods 5 28 38 Harwood 135 Coleman 1 4 4 Count Luns, 135 J. Davis 2 38 5 Betting J. B., even and 1 to 3 Conumdrum, 3 and 4 to 3 Harwood, 7 and 2; Count Luna, 7 and 2; Eleve, 8 and 2. J. B. led from start to finish, winning very easily by haif a length from Rieve, who was three lengths in front of Conundrum. Time —3.6214. Mutuels paid: Straight, $3.85; place, $2.65. Eleve paid $4.95.

SIXTE RACE. Purse $400; selling; seven furlongs.

Merry Duke	109 Buns
George C	109 Martin
George C	120 M J Innch
Alarm Ree	120 Farlon
Peralto	120 Leary
Algernon	120 Morria
Won by Merry Duke, Peralto
Algernon third	Time

Gloucester Races. day's racing events:

First Hace-One mile.-Race Boy The track was in much better condition than any one would have thought consider.

The weather brought out a large crowd to the Guttenburg track. The programme was a good one and bid fair to furnish some was a good one and bid fair to furnish some was good one and bid fair to furnish some work was less than a woodcutter, in the stars as woodcutter, in the condition than any one would have thought consider.

First Race—One mille,—Race Boy won, Hourt second, Rover third. Time—1.51.

Second Race—Three-eighths of a mille.—Woo by Bonniella coll.derry McCarthy second, Time—0.40%.

The track was in much better condition than any one would have thought consider.

Entries for Guttenburg. GUTTENBURG RACE TRACE, March 24.

pleasant for racing.

Betting was brisk and lively.

The first race was a malden affair, with Mayor B. tho good thing and isvorite. He ran an excellent race a few days ago, and the smart people, concluding he would about do to-day, got their money down in the city at 10 to 1. At the track no better than 3 to 1 was obtainable.

Teutonic was also a strong public choice, but the people got little satisfacty in for the money they bet on him, for it appeared as though Castle never tried a 193 dwith him.

Mayor B. won in a canter, and Reba T., an outsider, beat St. Laurent for the place. The start was delayed in this race over half an hour.

The second race went to King Hazem, who was a strong lavorite. Houston, whose price was a long one because of the slow state of the track, finished second. Mass Office Review Price and the track, finished second. Mass Office Review Price and Pric maidens to earry to 110 pounds; three fur-longs; Imperatrice dily, 107; Republic, 110; Bertin B., 107; Pet filly, 107; Plza colt, 110; Miss Elm, 107; Harlequin, 110; Irian colt, was raced to death in the first haif mile.

Immediately after the first race Mr. Thomas

F. Esgan, the manager of the betting ring, seizel the sheets of the Kentucky Club, which is harded by 30 to 100; King 120; Forest King, 190; Fanner, 190; Fanner, 190; Fanner, 190; Forest King, 190; Fanner, 190 King, 120 ; Fassett, 109.

RAMSEY IS ACQUITTED.

After 13 Hours the Jury agreed on a Verdict of "Not Guilty."

The General Sessions jury in case of David H. Ramsey, Ramseys, who was indicted manslaughter in shooting and wounding his wife on May 22, 1890, in this city, came in at 11.45.

Their verdict was "not guilty" and Ram-

Statistics of cities of the United States, of their population, debt# property valuation, police force, fire who are connected with the Astors, live, it departments, street lighting, &c., was said that nothing was known of Mr. Cole appear in the new issue of THE man Drayton's whereabouts. He certainly WORLD ALMANAC. The Bandit Captured by H's Mother.

Isaac Freeman, the young twelve-year-old bandit and Indian slaver who was captured yesterday after trying to hold up Sergt. Waish of the Elizabeth street station, was discharged by Justice Duffy to-day in the boy's mother's custody.

At the sale of trotting horses to-day at the American Institute Fair Building stock of D. W. L. Moore and S. C. Batley, of Tigonderoga, was offered. The highest price realized for any animal up to 2 o'clock was $950 for Wilkes Phot, sold to J. A. Innes, of Canton, Pa. Fire at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon on the first floor in the tenement-house at 74 Sev-

300 ONELINE does the work of ten, in THE WORLD'S Real Estate Index.

Closeted To-day With His Lawyer Preparing a Statement for the Public.

He Was Taken Off the Majestic by Dr. Jenkins and Slept at a Friend's House.

Mr. Borrowe Lands and Promises to Reply to Any Statement Drayton May Make Public.

He Says, Are Cruel and Malicious Lies.

West Tenth street, this morning was J

Although neither the Collector of the Port granted permission to Mr. Drayton to leave the vessel, by some means or other he made his way ashore before the Majestic left Quarantine, and he has since kept himself in the on both sides of the Atlantic, he promised to several persons that he would meet them later in the evening—about 9 o'clock, he said—at the Windsor Hotel in this city, and make a full statement of his side of the case and answer all proper questions.

was after Mr. Upshur had held a lengthy conhad arrived at Quarantine.

for Mr. Drayton met with this response:
"He is not here and we do not know of whether he is coming here or not. He has sent no word and no room has been engaged up and walked about the stateroom. "But for him.

The house at 374 Fifth avenue, where Mr. the Draytons went abroad, is now closed, as the Astors are in Florida. The housekeeper said to an Evening World reporter who Drayton and not to Mr. Drayton." Next door, No. 372, where the Roosevelts,

It was said, though, at the house that laughed heartily, showing a well-kept set of nothing was known of Mr. Drayton's move-In fact, it seemed very improbable that Mr. any of the friends or relatives of the Astor heard anything from Mr. Drayton or his triends this morning.

"We saw it stated in some of the papers," Drayton was coming here; but it must have been a mistake. He is probably being entertained at the house of some friend." It was found out later that Mr. Drayton came up from Ougrantine last night and went at once to the Benedict in Washington square and thence, after midnight, went to he residence of Dr. Richard H. Derby, 3 East

Fortieth street. He slept at Dr. Derby's house, and this morning went to the office of his lawyer, Stephen P. Nash, 67 Wall street, where a long consultation was held regarding the public

At Lawyer Nash's office at noon to-day all information was refused. Mr. Nash would neither affirm nor deny that Mr. Drayton was or had been to consultation with him, or that he had even visited the office. A gentleman who has an office in the building, however, declares that he knows that Mr. Drayton was there.

NOW DRAYTON WAS TAKEN OFF THE SHIP.
The Majestic was saugly made fast at her eagerness to quit the ship after their enforced detention in the fog bank of yesterday. He had been taken from the ship late yesterday afternoon at Quarantine by Health Officer Jenkins after the latter had landed the reporters who bearded the Majestic.

THE EVENING WORLD reporter visited Mr. Drayton's stateroom, No. 29, on the starboard side of the Majestic, a few minutes after she made fast to the deck, and found it absor-lutely empty. All Mr. Drayton's effects had been transferred to the pier within ten minutes from the time the Majestic was made fast, and his man Packer was there standing guard, a slient sentinel over the twesty odd pieces of leather-covered long boxes and well-filled rugs, bags, and the like Packer refused to say a word as to his master's whereabouts, or whither the buggage would be carted. Akn ck at stateroom 34 on the port side of the Majestic, Mr. Drayton's, called forth the response, in a decidedly Euglish accent, We're not quite ready yet, me man."

preceded him to these shores. " I wish to see Mr. Borrowe.

" He's right inside."

thrown open and Mr. Borrowe was seen sit- in favor of sound currency," said he, " but one ting on the edge of the lower berth. He is an of sufficient volume to conduct with ease all undersized man, looking to be not more than the exchanges desired by the people. I bethirty years old and of dark complexion coward," said the reporter. "Do you not consider that that calls for an immediate reply?"

"Oh! has he, indeed?" and Mr. Borrowe smiled audibly.

"He has accused you of betraying the secrecy in the affair by giving the correspondence to the press."

"Bound of the reporter." Do you not consider that although the Bomocrats might be now somewhat divided upon this question, they would be united in November on the great issue of tariff reform and success would again crown their efforts in the next campaign. (Applause.)

Mr. Cockran did not believe that if we had a silver standard this country would at once yo

"Do you know where Mr. Drayton went tvortes. " For all that," he continued, "If I had a cepted all the invitations I received I should Drayton would care to seek the hospitality of have to have eaten seventy-five dinners and drank a thousand cocktails. I have a great > sanction of the Collector, has caused a great deal of comment by the customs officials. One of the deputy inspectors said that an investigation would be made in the matter, as it was clearly a violation of the United States Customs laws, and there is a penalty of $1,000 for such violation.

DRIVEN TO MR. BORROWE'S HOME. Mr. Borrowe and Mr. Milbank left ship at 7.45, and after directing the man Tahen's saloon at Grand and Fifth said the clerk at the Windsor, "that Mr. Mr. Borrowe's house, 23 West Seventeenth street.

It is said that one reas in why the Majestic did not reach her dock last night was that she ran aground on Oyster Island, which lies inside, southwesterly, of Bedloe's Island.

The heavy fog was responsible for the Majestic's steaming out of her course in the

FREDDY GRBHAND ON THE LOOKOUT. He had haunted the place all day yesterday in company with Percy Drayton, a cousin of J. Coleman Drayton. Mr. Gebhard held an earnest consultation

(Continued on Fifth Page,

He Adds Three Hours to the Period of the Silver Bill.

Williams, of Illinois, the First Man to Speak To-Day.

the Administration Would

WASHINGTON, March p4.—The last legisla-tive day of the silver debate opened with

Only the gentlemen who have been granted immediately after the reading of the jour-'Is this Mr. Milbank?" inquired THE EVEX- hal the period of general debate was extended three hours by the announcement of Mr. Bland that he would postpone the motion order to give opportunity for greater debate. Representative Williams, of Hilnois, a Democratic member of the Committee on Coinage, At that moment the stateroom door was opened the debate in favor of the bill. "I am Here that the volume of our money should He wore a black derby hat of full crown, increase as the volume of exchangeable pro-suit of snuff-colored mixed material enveloped his well-knit form, and a high standing collar encircled his throat.

A pink-harred shirt was a noticeable feature of his make-up, and his trousers were rolled up at the bottom very considerably.

Mr. Borrowe's face is smooth, except for a slight growth of black whiskers running down below each ear.

NOT READY TO MAKE A STATEMENT.

He toyed nonchalantly with a cigarette, and when a reporter asked what statement he desired to make he elevated his cybrows and after a moment's hesitation repiled:

"None just at present. I have yet to consult with my friends. Later in the day I will probobly have something to communicate to the press."

But Mr. Drayton has already said to the press that he declared you to be a cur and a coward," said the reporter. "Do you not consider that that calls for an immediate reply?"

Mr. Borrowe's face is smooth, except for a slight growth of black whiskers running down below each ear.

NOT READY TO MAKE A STATEMENT.

He toyed nonchalantly with a cigarette, and when a reporter asked what statement he desired to make he elevated his cybrows and after a moment's hesitation replied:

"None just at present. I have yet to consult with my friends. Later in the day I will probobly have something to communicate to the press."

"But Mr. Drayton has already said to the press hat he declared you to be a cur and a coward," said the reporter. "Do you not consider that that calls for an immediate reply?"

Mr. Wile, of illinois, "that the passage of this bill and the adoption of tree coinage in this bill and the adoption of tree coinage in this country will have an equal effect upon the silver buillion works of the world, and I say that the salver coin of kurope is aiready at a par with gold." (Applause.)

"But the United States in chall not be unto the world and a say that the salver coin of kurope is aiready at a par with gold." (Applause.)

"But the United States had no doubt that it it passed the idouse it is twented the house of the Administration would country of the difference between gold and silver?" (Applause.)

"This is a question which should be answered," said Mr. Cockran. "But if the gentleman cannot provide for an extension of my time I cannot stop to answer it. (Laughter.) But I want to ask the gentleman from Missouri whether he calls this pending bill a free colnage measure?"

"The gentleman may designate it as he chooses," said Mr. Bland, "but I say it is the free colnage measure for gold and silver that we always had until 1873." (Applause.)

"With all respect to the gentleman from Missouri, "said Mr. Cockran," I desire to say that this bill does not provide for the colnage of gold and silver as it existed prior to 1873, More than that, I say that it flies into the face of constitutional provisions which are the basis of the platform and faith of the Democratic party.

pray excuse me. I'll make a statement later."

MR. MILBANK TALKS OF HIDSELP.

Mr. Milbank returned at this point, and is the reporter started to interrogate him Mr. Borrowe interrupted, saying: "You can also talk with Mr. Milbank at the same time."

Mr. Milbank volunteered to talk a little about himself, however. He was clad in a dark brown mixed sack suit, and his shapely head was topped by a black derby, similar to constituents. "But he hashes of the platform and faith of the bemoeratic party.

"It provides for the launching of this country into the banking to the pustor man of laith of the bemoeratic party.

"It provides for the launching of this country into the banking business and making of training the tau charge and commerce at the pleasure of the Treasury an induce with the mesery and into the party; and making of the banking thusiness and making of the banking business and making of the banking to the party.

"It provides for the launching of this country into the banking business and making of the banking head was topped by a black derby, similar to that worn by Mr. Borrowe.

A small light - brown moustache droops gracefully over his lip. He has brown eyes and a clear complexion, and is attogether a a good-looking-young man.

"This is the second time I've been in America," he said. "The last time I was over I remained but two days," and he

FOUR RUNAWAY BOYS

One Was Armed with a Revolver and All Were Hungry.

Early this morning Policeman Quinn, while patrolling his beat on Grand street, Hoboken, saw four boys trying the door of Assembly-

At the station-house the prisoners de-sortbed themselves as William Phillips, aged fourteen, son of Pohce Sergeant Phillips, aged Buffalo; Myron Neibeen, aged ten; William Flynn, aged fourteen, and Perer Healey, aged thirteen, all of Front street, Buffalo. The boys hadn't a cent of money, but young Healey was armed with a n English buildog revolver. They had run away from home. All four will be held until their parents have been heard from. Phillips said he an his com-panions were hungry, and had tried to enter the saloon with the expectation of filling up at the lunch-counter.

Seventy-first Gets the Colosseum. The Armory Board to-day leased the Colos seum Rink, at One Bundred and Seventh street, Lexington and Park avenues, for one year from May 1, for the use of the Seventy-first Regiment as an armony, for $12,000.

Weather Forecast.

searmer. Conditions favorable for fair, warmer Saturday.

The following record shows the changes in the temperature for the past twenty-four B A. M 36 | 6 A. M 35 | 9 A. M ... 35 | 13 M 40

"Fools Will Be Meddling."

BUILD NO SPEEDWAY. WAR SHIPS IN BEHRING SEA

This Afternoon.

A Third Drive in the Park to Be at Senate Committee to Recommend Once ; Reported On-ng at which the Commissioners gave a supplementary hearing to the advocates of the a third driveway on the west side of the despatch to Esquimait that the warships Park from which bicyclists and equestrians Melpomone, Champion and Warspite have shall be excluded, and on which the speed started for Esquimait, and that they will shall be no greater than it is at present. The Commissioners, in executive session. resolved not to construct the speedway, Mr.

Straus alone voting in the negative. The resolution is as follows: Wherens, By the advice of the Corporation Consel, Senate bill No. 444: relating to the construc-tion of a driveway in the Central Park is not to be considered as mandatory, therefore he it. Resulted, That the road contemplated be not Another resolution directed the Superin intendent of Parks and the Landscape Architect to report on the means for relieving the greater needs in the matter of driveways, at the next regular meeting of the Board.

NAMED BY THE PRESIDENT.

New Judge of the Court of Claims and Other Officers.

INT ASSOCIATED PRESS.] WASHINGTON, March 24.-The President, today sent to the Senate the following nomina-

Court of Claims, vice Glenni W. Scoffeld, over the seals, but it must be confessed that retired. United States District Judges-William K. Townsend, for District of Connecticut; John R. Rector, Northern District of Texas; John H. Raker, District of Indiana. Ellery P. Ingham, United States Attorney, and Alexander P. Colesberry, Marshal for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. MR. BLAINE'S HEALTH.

The Secretary Now Able to Walk Out on Pleasant Days.

INV ASSOCIATED PRESS. 1

WASHINGTON, March 24 .- Secretary Blaine able to take a short walk in the open air whenever the weather is favorable. While he has not as yet resumed the active control of business at the State Department he is fully advised of all important diplomatic and consular transactions, and he has been furnished with copies of the recent corre-spondence on the Bearing sea question. ANOTHER GOULD CONVICTED.

Third on the List of Albany City National Bank. Utica, March 24.—The jury in the case of Anthony Gould to-day found the detendant Justice to the canadian. IRY ASSOCIATED PRESS. guitty. He was indicted for aiding and abetting in abstracting $10,000 from the Albany

City National Bank.

A new trial will be asked on a writ of error.

Anthony Gould is the third person convicted for the robbery of the bank funds.

George P. Whitney pleaded guility and was sentenced to seven years. William Gould was convicted and sentenced to six years. There are two other Gould brothers under indictment for a similar offense.

Sundry Civil Appropriations. INT ASSOCIATED PRESS.

INDEX Ads.aredouble & sextuple condensed. Therefore cost less

TALKS.

Preakness Two-Year-Olds May Cut a Figure.

" If ever a horse was dead this one was." flatly charged Mr. Carr. Hynes expli that the horse wasn't wo, th $4, and that he had never run two races alike. Sae who has hitherto borne a good reputati swore that he did not stop the horse. Burke explained that while Fassett won the other day he was not a good horse then and the victory was a surprise to him. He did not believe in taking any se-war with the United States, or, rather, the United States are not going to war with us of over the seals, but it must be confessed that diplomacy so far has only succeeded in getting matters in an uncomfortable and alarming position."

The Patt Matt Gazette says: "Presiden Harrison is again riding his high norse bound for the Presidential election. Arbitration being agreed upon, the only thing left was to come to loggerheads with Lord Salisbury over the course to be pursued during the arbitration. The differences will, of course, be adjusted. They are worthy of notice only as another instance of the posing of the President of the flotes says: "The latest tidings would excite alarm if it were not known that President and election appeal to the class of electors who Longfellow's speedy daughter, Lavinia, has been blistered twice. The heroic treatment has done her good apparently, for she is in ea good shape as she was when a two-year-old. She will be an important feature in the hand-caps this year.

The telegraph operator at Gloucester who sends descriptions of the races to the pool-rooms is a pleasing individual. He rive every one a rair chance for their money, factoring in the fifth race at Gloucester be had Golddigger leading at the start, sliegoe at the quarter, little Addis at the half, hardy him the stretch and Bonnie Lass the winner. No one could kick on this description.

After a long delay at the post they finally got away in good order, with St. Laurent in front. The latter led to the head of the stretch, where Mayor R. came through and won easily by six lengths from Rebs 7., who beat St. Laurent, third. Time—1.0116.

Mutuels paid: Straight, Ss. 15; for a place, 4.50. Rebs T. paid $75.35.

The Stories About Mrs. Drayton,

The only passenger of the steamship Mabefore she arrived at her dock, at the foot of Coleman Drayton, one of the principals in been feared would result in deadly combat in closest hiding. Whether he remained on Staten Island over night, or came to New York and accepted the espitality of friends here, or went on to Philadelphia, as some of his friends asserted he intended to do, could not be ascertained. Those who had caught a glimpse of him on Following are the entries for the races to- the Majestic as she came to anchor at Quarantine found him very uncommunicative at that time; but although he refused then to talk of his difficulty with Mr. Borrowe, and of the scandal which his challenge to a duel had stirred up the case and answer all proper questions.

When 9 o'clock came Mr. Drayton had not put in an appearance at the Windsor, aithough a large delegation of friends and reporters was on hand to welcome him, and besides, he sent no explanation of his failure to keep his engagement.

Drayton's friend, Mr. G. E. Upshur, who spoke for him on board the Majestic, sold that there was ever a liaison between the lady and myseif, and I deny it again now. But I must decline to talk further on this point. Come to me later at the properties in the case and answer all properties that if we had a silver tandard and these two metals come not at ones to a parity, the man who receives not at ones to a parity, the man who receives the flow will be swindled by the operation of the Government just in the ratio of the Government just in the ratio of the department of the adjusted in the commercial honor of the nation which between the lady and myseif, and I deny it again now. But I must decline to talk line interior metal for a pre-existing debt will be swindled by the operation of the Government just in the ratio of the Government just in the ratio of the devenment just in the ratio of the covernment just in the ratio of the devenment just in the ratio of the devenment just in the ratio of the devenment just in the ratio of the covernment just in the ratio of the devenment just in the ratio of the de

Mr. Drayton, he said, would remain with further on this point. Come to me later at his irlends in New York for several days, at my house." least, and would stop at the Union Club.

"Bld you have any trouble what

"He will have a settlement of this affair
Mr. Drayton on the passage over?" before he goes away from New York," said Mr. Upshur, confidently and positively. This each other."

versation with Mr. Drayton after the Majestic when he left the boat last night?" At the Union Club this morning inquiries told that he left the ship last night."

"Mr. Drayton will not come here. I don't expect him. This house belongs to Mrs.

Mrs. Orme Wilson, a sister of Mrs. Drayton, lives at 414 Fifth avenue, and it had been suggested that Mr. Drayton might have gone on foot by his challenge to Hallett Borrowe. No one at the Windsor notel had seen or

The Majestic was saugif many tasks. A few with Sergt. Tubbs, in charge of the cab moments later her passengers began to come service, and it is believed that he left orders down the gang-plank.
"2" Brayton was not among the passengers

Work a Gold Premium Scare.

WE RORROWE COMES ASHORE.
Soon after a tail man, of splendid physique. members of the House. carrying a carved handles cane upon which leave by the House were absent when the he leaned heavily, limped out of stateroom gavel fell.

ING WORLD reporter.
"It is. What can I do for you?" asked the young Englishman, whose fame as a duellist for the previous question until 3 o'clock in with considerable roll to the brim. A sack suit of snuff-colored mixed material enveloped his well-knit form, and a high standing collar stitute the unit of value in the United States

"Not the slightest. We never spoke to

"I haven't the faintest idea. I was simply "Do you expect to have a meeting in this country or anywhere else?" "Oh! Pshaw, pshaw," he said as he stood many friends here."

DIL JENKING TO BE INVESTIGATED. The landing of Mr. Drayton by Health Officer Jenkins at Quarantine without the inner harbor. Shortly after 9 o'clock this morning Fred Gebhard drove to the White Star pier alone.

sai of their juggage, engaged a streets, and placed them under arrest.

At the station-house the prisoners de-westerly winds. For Friday: Fair, slightly

Tar, Licerice and Tolu Wafers. positive relief for core throats. Y. & S. Mira. "."

No Actual War Seems Likely.

Ratification of the Treaty.

The Park Board at noon to-day had a meet. LONDON, March 24 .- A despatch from Victoria, B. C., to Reuter's Telegram Company, says it is reported there that Rear-Admirai Trotting men agreed to a proposed amend- C. F. Hotham, C. B., Commander-In-Chief on nent to the new law, which will provide for the British Pacific station, has sent a cable > than the time previously arranged for their arrival. English Press Sees Peril in Facing reach there on April 1, two months earlier

Squadrons in Behring Sea. Lospos, March 24.—Commenting on President Harrison's reply to Lord Salisbury's last note in regard to the request of the United states for the re-establishment of a modus vivendi between the United States and Great Britain in regard to the Behring Sea question pending arbitration of the claims of the United States, the St. James's Gazette to-day and American squadrons face to face it is impossible not to feel anxiety as to what might happen if a couple of naval officers in a remote sea should lose their heads or their tempers.

The Gazette adds: "We are not going to war with the United States, or, rather, the s gradually regaining his strength and is now excite alarm if it were not known that Presian election appeal to the class of electors who

to the commanding officers of the naval and revenue vessels which are to be assigned to the duty of protecting the scaling industry and ing the coming season will differ from an ing the coming season will differ from the duty of protecting the scaling industry as provided by the coming season will differ from the duty of the coming season will differ from the duty of the coming season will differ from the duty of the coming season will differ from the duty of the coming season will differ from the coming season will be coming season.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The Sundry Civil Appropriation bill will be reported to the House this afternoon. The whole amount carried by the bill is $25.157.787, being $410.026,168 less than the estimates. The Sundry Civil Appropriation bill for 1892 carried an appropriation of $38.305,303.

Alaskan coast north of intitude 55 degrees to Unimak Pass, south of Bebring Sea, with a view to the protection of the seal herds on their way to Pehring Sea so long as they remain within the jurisdiction of the tinical states. It is hoped in this way to preserve a large number of seals that otherwise would not be allowed to reach the breeding grounds. number of seals that otherwise world not allowed to reach the breeding grounds.

The revenue vessels Corwin and Albatross have already gone to Alaskan waters on this mission, and will soon be followed by the Rush and Bear and possibly by several haval

> TO RATIFY THE TREATY. Such Is the Senate Committee's Behring Sea's Recommendation.

WARRINGTON, March 24.—The Behring Sea arbitration was discussed by the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations to-day at a special meeting, and it was decided to recom-mend the ratification of the treaty. PAXI. PAXI, PAXI, PAXI.

Looking Into Fassett's Queer Running Yesterday.

Hudson County Jockey Club after the race at Guttenburg yesterday. Fassott, one favorite at the beginning of the betting. He won a good race a few days ago, beating a better lot, and some surprise was manifested when his price steadily went back to 4 to 1 at the close. This queer fluctuation in the betpatrol judge at the head of sett as they flashed by When the horses swung into the stretch For sett was third and runing easily with So eker the jockey sitting still. Mr. Carr upon finished. He was informed that Paretts finished a bad sixth. Thereupon Mr. Carr ordered John Heast ordered John Hynes, the trainer of Famesta, and Snedeker the jockey, to appear before the says that the dispute is clearly becoming It looks as though no agreement would be vere measures, inasmuch as they were unable to see the performance of Fassett. made pending arbitration. With the British Mr. Carr saw the force of this argument and rejuctantly gave in, though he still believes that Fassett was dead. Mr. Carr may be wrong in his opinions, but he deserves praise for his efforts to keep things straight at Gut-tenburg. He is fair and his word can be gain-bled on.

an election appeal to the class of electors who love to see Great Britain insulted. The presence of a British squadron in Behring sea will insure that if President Harrison fulfills his threat of using military force England will not want the means to return a sufficient Roland for his Oliver. Happily, however, there is not the slighest chance of matters coming to that stern issue."

The Star hoids that Lord Salisbury ought not to have knuckled under to Mr. Blaine has year, and says the Frime Minister is now right in declining to assent to a prolongation of the inodus vivendi, which would be an injustice to the canadian.

MORE PROTECTION FOR SEALS.

Patrol to Be Established All Along the Three-Mile Limit.

By Associated Press. 1

Washington, March 24.—The instructions to the commanding officers of the naval and revynue vessels which are to be assigned to "The races on the western tracks he just to the care of the naval and revynue vessels which are to be assigned to "The races on the western tracks he just to the care of the naval and revynue vessels which are to be assigned to "The races on the western tracks he just to the care of the naval and revynue vessels which are to be assigned to "The races on the western tracks he just to the care of the naval and revynue vessels which are to be assigned to "The races on the western tracks he just the return to New York. Speaking of the navel for the return to New York. Speaking of the said it can't tell whether Tenny will race this year on the whether Tenny will race this year on the whether Tenny will race this year on to. The nose in the list was chered to read the rank hear the said has been 'fired' three times. Now, he may round up all right, and then each tenny, he said: 'I can't tell whether Tenny will race this year on to. The nose in the said was

The Preakness two-year-olds will, from all accounts cut quite a figure in this season's battles. Those by Lindon are said to be good lookers and are credited with fast trials.

The ruled-off bookmakers of the Friendship Club yesterday made overtures to the man-agement of the Hudson County Jockey Glub-looking towards a reinstatement. It is said that they offered to tell who put up the job.

EVERTTHING the best at Nicz Enque's newstown Care, 98 Cedar st., cor. Temple,